

Continuing Airworthiness - Reg. (EU) 1321/2014 – Part-145

Syllabus of the course

- EASA Regulation Structure with focus on Continuing Airworthiness
 - Who is EASA?
 - EASA mission and responsibilities
 - Introduction to Basic Regulation – (EU) 2018/1139
 - Implementing and Delegated Regulations of Basic Regulation
 - EASA Regulations in the area of aviation safety
 - EASA Regulations in the area of civil aviation relating to environmental protection
- (EU) 1321/2014
 - Structure
 - Articles
 - Part-145
 - Structure
 - Sect. A - Technical and organisation requirements
 - Sect. B – Authority requirements
 - Appendices

Continuing Airworthiness - Reg. (EU) 1321/2014 – Part-145 Course

Description: Provide an introduction to the Basic Regulation and the structure of the Reg. (EU) 1321/2014 to deepen the concepts of Part-145 in terms of the maintenance of the aircraft and its components and the approval of the maintenance organisation.

Duration: 6h

Language: English/Italian

