

Continuing Airworthiness - Reg. (EU) 1321/2014 – Part-CAMO

Syllabus of the course

- ➔ EASA Regulation Structure with focus on Continuing Airworthiness
 - ➔ Who is EASA?
 - ➔ EASA mission and responsibilities
 - ➔ Introduction to Basic Regulation – (EU) 2018/1139
 - ➔ Implementing and Delegated Regulations of Basic Regulation
 - ➔ EASA Regulations in the area of aviation safety
 - ➔ EASA Regulations in the area of civil aviation relating to environmental protection
- ➔ (EU) 1321/2014
 - ➔ Structure
 - ➔ Articles
 - ➔ Part-CAMO
 - ➔ Structure
 - ➔ Sect. A - Organisation requirements
 - ➔ Sect. B – Authority requirements
 - ➔ Appendices

Continuing Airworthiness - Reg. (EU) 1321/2014 – Part-CAMO Course

Description: Provide an introduction to the Basic Regulation and the structure of the Reg. (EU) 1321/2014 to deepen the concepts of Part-CAMO in terms of the approval of the organisation involved in the continuing airworthiness of aircraft and its components.

Duration: 6h

Language: English/Italian

